UNITED PRESBYTERIANS. Annual Meeting of the New York Synod at Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, September 19.—The annual meeting of the New York Synod of the United Presbyterian Church was held to-day. The synod is composed of all churches in New England and the Middle States east of the Susquehanna river and a few in the South and Canada. The representation consists of all the amendment in order to induce them to support his September ticket, and then on the day of the election and just before the close of the polls, when the knowledge of his treachery could not be circulated, deliberately broke his word. The Witness, the leading organ of the Prohibitionists, says:

The statement that he was going to vote for the constitutional amendment we must suppose was based on some distinct promise by Mr. Blaine to Gan. Dow, But Mr. Baine has not voted for the amendment. We are therefore forced to conclude either that Ges. Dow amounced Mr. Blaine's intention without due authority, which is unlikely, or that Mr. Blaine violated a solemn promise to the Prohibitionists. Having captured the Prohibitionists, by pretending to be one of them. But he bear the polls.

The case of its superiority over Quinine and other remedies!

Is because in these DISEASES there is always deradigment of the liver and often of the digestiveorgans. The remedies usually given have reference only to breaking the chill without regard to the condition the system may be left in; whereas the mere breaking of the chill is but a small part of what is required. The various organs of the body, more especially the liver and stomach coust be brought into a healthy condition, otherwise the return of the chills will be the probable result.
